

Division Administration

There were 12 newly hired employees in the Properties section (5 professional, 7 support), 2 new employees in the Cooperative Forest Management section (both support), and 1 professional position in Central Office. A total of 8 people left the Division of Forestry, 4 of which retired. The Division's website continued to undergo significant changes, particularly with the implementation of a new statewide content management system.